

Whatever Happened to the Reformation

Contents

Acknowledgments

Foreword

R. C. Sproul

Foreword

David F. Wells

Introduction: The Eclipse of the Reformation in the Evangelical Church: Much Ado About Nothing?

G. L. W. Johnson

1 Dismantling the Postmodern Prison

Douglas M. Jones

2 Neo-Socinianism and the Stand of Scripture: Basics in the Battle for Biblical Theism

Douglas J. Wilson

3 The Future Unknown to God: Open Theism's Diminutive Conception of God's Providence

Bruce A. Ware

4 The Future Foreknown by God: Reaffirming Classic Theism's Conception of God's Foreknowledge

Bruce A. Ware

5 The Future at Risk with God: Open Theism's Imbalanced and Excessive Conception of God's Immanence

Bruce A. Ware

6 Eclipsing the Canon? The Spirit, the Word, and "Revelations of the Third Kind"

Richard B. Gaffin, Jr., and R. Fowler White

7 Contrary to What You May Have Heard: On the Rhetoric and Reality of Claims of Continuing Revelation

R. Fowler White

8 Taking Every Thought Captive: The Ministry of the Word and the Limits of Evangelical Scholarship

D. G. Hart

9 A Flourishing of Fresh Wisdoms: The Call of the Hour in the Ministry of the Word

David Powlison

10 Evangelism Rooted in Scripture: The Puritan Example

Joel R. Beeke

11 Preaching: Still the Holy Spirit's Major Medium

Joseph A. Pipa, Jr.

12 Unafraid to Preach

John F. MacArthur, Jr.

Afterword

Michael S. Horton

Index of Scripture

Index of Persons