

- How do we identify leadership qualities in building a strong effective women's ministry team?
- What are some key strategies for evaluating and designing a Women's Ministry?
- Recruiting?
- We're assessing needs and interest of a local church's ministry to women – what do we need?

If any of these questions have been raised in your local church...this tool is for you!! The Women's Ministry Training and Resource Guide should be front and center in discipling your women...

This tool focuses on designing a biblical approach to women's ministry that is part of the entire discipleship of the local church. Whether your local women's ministry is just getting started or needs refreshing, this guide is a resource to help develop, plan, implement, and train leaders for a women's ministry. Included are two leader's guides for books that are recommended reading for your team: Women's Ministry in the Local Church by Ligon Duncan and Susan Hunt, and Leadership for Women in the Church by Susan Hunt and Peggy Hutcheson. Contents also include strategies to plan for and implement a women's ministry that help build a team and meet the specific needs of your church's women and also resources for further help. This book is designed as a resource to be used by your current team and then passed on to future teams.
